

5th Symposium “Mediterranean Malvasias” Sitges 26-27 May 2016

Presentation

After the meetings in Porec, Salina, La Palma and Monemvasia, the city of Sitges (South of Barcelona) home of the Malvasia de Sitges is pleased to host the 5th Symposium Mediterranean Malvasias organized by Incavi, Catalan Wine Institute, with the support of the Sitges municipality and Agisitges. The Symposium is a place to meet and learn about a common heritage and will try to keep producers and scientists around the Malvasia grape and wine, one of the oldest grape cultivars.

The meeting will cover all the papers and presentations with viticulture and enological interest as well as papers of relative scientific domains, such as biology, biotechnology, analytical chemistry, marketing and enotourism related to Malvasia.

- History of the cultivars Malvasia
- Viticulture, training, soil, cultivation practices
- Physiology and Biochemistry
- Wine styles, yeasts, aromas
- Environment and Culture
- Economy and Marketing

How to arrive to Sitges?

Barcelona, El Prat is the nearest airport. Transport to Sitges:

There are direct buses from Barcelona Airport to Sitges. The MonBus runs from outside Terminal 1 (T1). If your flight arrives at T2, you will need to get the free shuttle bus from T2 to T1. Once you are at T1 you will be able to get the coach to Sitges.

The MonBus runs once per hour from Monday to Friday. On Saturdays the bus runs every two hours. On Sundays and Holidays they run four times per day. For details of the times and ticket prices of the MonBus Bus check the MonBus Website. Go to the 'Timetable Searcher' and key in 'Aeroport' to 'Sitges'. Taxi is available in the train station.

There is also possible to use the train from the airport to El Prat and then a train to Sitges. The trip takes about 30 minutes both by train or bus.
